Glass Fusing | Trees

Saturday, April 22

10:30 am to 3:30 pm

Instructor: Carrie Gibbs

Class fee: $75 | materials included

Beginning to intermediate students will learn how to cut sheets of glass into smaller shapes to create unique and original designs. The basics of glass fusing, project design, melting properties, and kiln firing methods will be discussed. Students may choose from a variety of molds to slump their project into a tray, bowl or dish. More experienced students will be guided on an individual basis. Finished glass projects will be ready to pick-up two weeks after the workshop.

Stained Glass

Meets 6 Thursdays, April 13 - May 18

6:00 pm to 9:00 pm

Instructor: David Mason

Class fee: $85

Beginning to advanced students will learn the copper foil method of stained glass to create beautiful stained-glass panels (approx. 12" x 12"). Patterns will be available for students or they can design their own.

Tool kit available for beginning students $80.

Modified supply kits available for purchase from instructor as needed for more experienced students who may already have some tools. Advanced students will be guided on an individual basis focusing on more complex windows or lampshades.

Barn Quilt Painting

Sunday Sessions - March 26, April 2, 16, May 21

1:00 to 4:00 pm

Instructor: Jennifer Lehman

Class fee: $80

Materials fee: $45 | pay to instructor day of class

Students will learn how to draw, tape, and paint their chosen quilt pattern on a hand-crafted wood pallet. The pallet, constructed of pine, will be a 22" x 22" square. In addition to class led instruction, professionally written pattern books are provided, which includes step by step directions. Students will choose their pattern based on difficulty level. Individual instruction will be provided, as well as the history of barn quilts. Jennifer has a painted wooden spoon 'paint sample' to represent every color offered. This makes for easy color selection. Your barn quilt will be finished and ready to hang at the end of the class.

Raku Clay Workshop

3 Part Process:

Thursday, April 27 - Wet Clay Night | 6:00 to 9:00 pm

Thursday, May 11 - Glaze Night | 6:00 to 9:00 pm

Saturday, May 13 - RAKU Firing! | 11:00 am – 4:00 pm

Instructor: Judy Mason

Class fee: $50 | Includes cost of clay, glazes, and kiln firing

Raku is an exciting, action-packed outdoor firing experience! This is a great opportunity to learn the basics of working with clay and witness the magic of an ancient art form. Thursday, April 27 instructor Judy Mason will teach students how to create a clay pot using hand-building methods (more experienced clay artists will be guided independently on projects of their choosing). Thursday, May 11 students will learn how to glaze and decorate their pot and prepare for the firing on Saturday, May 13 When the outdoor kiln is 'peaking,' at over 1800 degrees, the molten red pieces are grabbed out of the kiln with tongs and placed in nearby containers filled with combustible materials. The smoke and flames create metallic colors and deep, black charcoal effects on the surface of the pottery. After cooling, the surfaces are cleaned to reveal the magic of the glazes and will be ready to take home late Saturday afternoon.

Clay Whistles

Saturday, March 25

10:30 am to 12:30 pm

Instructor: Bonnie Shileny

Class fee: $30 | includes all materials

In this one Saturday workshop students will learn how to create a small pinch-pot and then transform it into a real clay whistle. Students can personalize with textures, patterns and small clay pieces to create simple or animal like forms. After painting and adding color accents the whistles can be taken home that day! We will use an air-dry clay that will harden like rock overnight.

Clay & Cocktails

Must be 21 years old | Private Parties are available for special events (all ages) and you chose the theme (see page 14) or request a special theme.

Cozy Cups

Friday, May 26

1:30 pm to 4:30 pm

Instructor: Carrie Gibbs

Class fee: $40 | includes materials, glazing and kiln firing

Bring your favorite beverage and learn the magic of clay! This one afternoon class is a great way for beginners (having never touched clay) to learn the basics and explore their imaginations while creating a variety of hand-built cups. Students can personalize their cups with stamped letters and messages of inspiration or humor. Finished pieces will be fired in the kiln and ready to pick-up two weeks after the workshop. All cups will be food safe, dishwasher and microwavable.

Horse Hair Pottery

Part 1 - Saturday, April 8 | 10:00 am to 3:00 pm

Part 2 - Thursday, April 13 | 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm

Instructor: Bonnie Shileny

Class fee: $50 | includes all materials

Learn the amazing technique of horse hair pottery and the unpredictable magic these rich, black lines can bring to your pots! The "part 1" class will focus on hand building bulbous vessels, similar to Native American Pueblo Pottery. Students will learn how to smooth and burnish the outer surface of the pot with a pebble or spoon. The "part 2" class will be spent firing the pottery and applying pieces of horse hair, to the hot surface of the pot, creating smoky, organic lines. Students will learn how to finish and seal their work by buffing the outer surface with wax. Pots will be ready to take home that evening.

Easter Basket

Saturday, March 25

10:00 am to 4:00 pm

Instructor: Janet Hall

Class fee: $30 Material fee: $30 | pay to instructor day of workshop

Students have the option of making their basket with blue or pink reed. The instructor will need to know by March 15 what you prefer. If not, students will receive pink. Basket dimensions 14"x12"x9"

Square Egg Basket

Saturday, April 29

Instructor: Janet Hall

10:00 am to 4:00 pm

Class fee: $30 Material fee: $30 | pay to instructor day of workshop

This unique basket has a wooden framework with natural reed. Students will learn how to weave a God's Eye pattern and build their basket with rib construction technique. Color accents are available if students want to personalize the trim. Basket dimensions 10"x10"x10"

Barnyard Cat Basket

Saturday, May 27

Instructor: Janet Hall

10:00 am to 4:00 pm

Class fee: $30 Material fee: $30 | pay to instructor day of workshop

This colorful basket makes a beautiful decoration for your home but can also be functional. It has unique pointed 'cat' feet at the base. Basket dimensions 11"x11"x12"

If a student does not complete their basket by the end of the day Saturday they may return on a Tuesday (3 to 6 pm) during a regular "Basketeer Club" meeting to work individually with the instructor to complete their project.

Basket Workshop Work Kit: It is helpful for students to bring dozen clip clothespins, towel, small plastic washtub, pencil and scissors.*

Basketry Basics

3 different baskets – 3 beginner classes

Dates and Times indicated below

Instructor: Emily Cooper

Class fee: $30 per class

Material fee: $15 | pay to instructor day of workshop

Bottle Cap Jewelry

Saturday, April 29

10:30 am to 1:30 pm

Instructor: Bonnie Shileny

Class fee: $30 | includes all materials

Hammer, bend, twist! Come have fun creating whimsical jewelry and brooches made from recycled bottle caps. You will learn how to flatten the caps, bend and twist wire, as well as add accents using beads and buttons. All tools will be provided for use during class and supplies are included in the class fee. Students are welcome to bring their own caps, beads, buttons, or treasures for accents.

Haiku Poetry and Sumi Ink Painting Workshop

Sunday, April 23

1:30 pm to 4:30 pm

Instructors: Alicia Woodward and Carrie Gibbs

Class fee: $30 | includes all materials

In this workshop, participants will learn about haiku poetry and basics of sumi ink painting. Haiku poetry is a short form of poetry with three lines that celebrates the simplicity and beauty of nature. Students will be encouraged to write their own poems after practicing a few writing exercises. The workshop is not limited to just haiku, creative writing freedom will be encouraged. Then, sumi ink painting techniques will be demonstrated using ink and bamboo brushes. We will combine the two artforms and play with different ways to incorporate our poems, or poems by different authors, into a work of art.
